

EAC LEGAL PROGRAM WITH

The program provides EAC clients with a free introductory telephone conference, up to 30 minutes long.

EAC clients will receive a 20% discount from the firm's participating attorneys off their normal hourly rate if the parties agree to representation.

The Keenan Legal Group is a business, estate planning and property law practice that provides legal advice to individuals, families, and business owners in the West Michigan area.

If your life or the life of a family member has been impacted by a legal issue, you may need the expert counsel of an attorney. EAC can help with a free 30 minute introductory telephone conference with a qualified attorney. Online support is also available with our library of legal articles. Call or visit us online to get the legal answers you need.
